ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce

As a member of the Legislature in the Lower House of the next General Assembly. Subject to the action of the Democratic nomination for Governor. Mr. Clay, President of the Constitutional Convention, was to speak at Williamsburg, Monday, and Mr. Clardy at the Forks of Elkhorn, yesterday. We suggest that, as such as Messrs. Clay and Clardy are members of the Constitutional Convention and drawing their per diem as such, it would be well for them to remain in Frankfort, in the event of their being called to the event of the several bills to be provided with a circulating medium. We express our surprise, regret and indignation that this duty has been so long delayed and neglected, contrary to the wishes of the members of the Senate, but to the best interests of the masses of the people, who are suffering the pangs of poverty and stagnation of business, caused by a want of sufficient representation.

THE condition of the Senatorial candidate in Illinois remains unchanged. The three Alliance men still prevent the election of a Senator.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has cabled Gen. John C. New to come home from England at once. Knowing ones say the President will offer him the Treasury portfolio.

JAS. OATES, T. L. Roll and J. W. Sullivan are Legislative probables in Muhlenberg county. All of them are bright young men and any of them would honor the country in legislative halls.

THE World's Fair Commission say they have $5,000,000 from Congress to help that measure along. And they further say that Congress cannot afford to refuse it, as the Exposition is of a national character.

THE Republican Investigating Committee, knowing that it would not do to let the public know all of Commissioner Raun's rascality, whitewashed the record of that gentleman and reported him guilty of no wrong.

EDDIEVILLE will not be without a paper. Mr. W. W. Martin has embarked in the field of journalism at that place. The first number of his paper, the Times-Enterprise, is a model six-column sheet. We wish Mr. Martin abundant success in his new venture.

JOHN J. INGALLS is at the last days of his career as Senator, dieing of his own straight things. He is opposed to the closure, or gag rule, of the Senate. He even intimated that if it had come to the vote, he would have voted against the Force bill. These statements and his speech bidding for the Alliance vote of the Kansas Legislature, show how much better it would have been for him had he stood to these opinions just a little earlier.

ATTORNEY GENERAL HARDIN has announced himself a candidate for the office of Governor. Capt. Hardin is a very popular man with the people of Kentucky. His sympathies are with the people. All this will avail him little, as the people of this good State are bent on electing a new set of officials out-and-out, and they are about right in that conclusion. Mr. Hardin was Attorney General when State took the money, and the people will think that he should have known more about what was going on.

THE AGE WERE AHEAD OF HIM.

The Overland Messenger announced the following account of a school teacher in Darries county, who died to progress as the times advanced.

Clinging to the plans of his forefathers while the rising generation gathered new powers, this man gradually dropped back, little by little, until finally he was lost in the fog of prominence and position. The other days, when he fails to meet the obligations of the present. With the past, there is a venerable record for the year for pensions, $31,173,085; for fees and expenses for examining surgeons, $1,500,000; for salaries $72,000; for clerk fees $300,000. This last item is increased by $400,000 by an amendment to the bill. The total grand total appropriated is $135,445,085, and thus does the Government provide for her disabled soldiers, many of whom neither saw a battle nor smelt powder.

FAIR BROS. & CO., Successors to J. E. Fogle & Co.

Having in the last few days bought the entire stock of the well known firm of J. E. FOGLE & CO., we desire in behalf of the retiring member to thank our customers for their patronage during the past. When we retrospective the past, we can but feel flattered at our success. Coming among you strangers, we have by fair dealing built up a trade equalled by none in Ohio county.

OUR MOTTO IS: FAIR DEALING--HONEST GOODS AT LOW PRICES.

While some are asleep, others will watch. So it is with us, always on the alert, trying to find items of interest for our countless customers and always discounting our competitors. Now that Spring is almost upon us, we have some RARE BARGAINS to offer you in the name of court, 1888.

LADIES COATS, HATS AND BOYS OVERCOATS, BOOTS AND SHOES.

It is not our habit to carry Winter Goods over Summer and hand them down in the Fall as new goods, but instead, we put them down at prices that make them move and are thus enabled to always show our trade NEW GOODS. A word to the Ladies about our line of

FINE CUSTOM-MADE SHOES!

We have received for Spring by far the most Stylish and Durable Shoe ever brought to this market. Also have them in Childrens Heel and Spring Heel. $1.50 buys an Extra Quality Douglas Kid Shoe, as good as any $2 shoe in existence. We mention especially this week a line of EARLY SPRING STYLES in GINGHAM!

Suitable for immediate use; you should see them before buying. We shall endeavor to keep in view the wants of our customers, and supply them at all times with articles that competitors cannot touch in price or quality. Thanking you for your trade, we cordially invite you to

WILL HAVE A TRIAL.

Fred Burgess' Trial Sat. for Next Monday--Dr. C. H. and the Attorney Will be on Hand Ready for the Trial.

It was thought for awhile that the special trial set for next Monday to try Fred Burgess would be postponed, owing to the fact that Attorney Joe Nee would be at Calhoun on the time to conduct the trial of Mr. Kirk. Judge M. C. Green of Cincinnati, however, was recently appointed by the Governor to try Kirk, and the day for that trial has been set for the fourth Monday in this month. Commonwealth's Attorney, both writes to County Attorney, Felix, that both he and the Commonwealth's Attorney are for the trial, and that it will most certainly be held. Several witnesses are bound for their appearance here next Monday. The Commonwealth's Attorney is the leading trial lawyer in the state, and has almost forgotten the murder of old man Harris at Rosine four years ago. Jim Burgess, Fred's brother, is now serving a sentence in the State Penitentiary, having been convicted before accessory to his crime, at the November term of court, 1888.

At this time of the year when the rivers are full of rafts, log drivers and their families are in a constant state of anxiety. Sullenger & Moore are very near losing a fine batch of logs last Saturday. A party said to be from Breckinridge county passed down the river with a raft of logs, and when they reached the back of the dam, they struck a lot of logs belonging to Sullenger & Moore that were tied at the bank, and knocked eight or ten fine logs loose. After dropping down the river, they were unable to get them back. They were surrounded by two or three different persons they passed, to leave the logs, as they belonged to Sullenger & Moore. They then fired a gun, and tied the logs together again. Sullenger & Moore are naturally interested in the attempt to take their logs, which are worth on the market something near one hundred dollars. Col. W. H. Sullenger, of the company, will be here Saturday evening, and we will see his party when he has a few hours had possession of a part of one of his rafts.

PERSONAL.
A Political Song.
Little is known about everybody, little hill of money bags lots of things, is sure by those that buy their goods from Carson & Morton.

Stock Sales.

To the business men and citizens of Green and Jefferson Counties--We will, on the first Monday in March, 1891, have stock sales of Horses and Mules at our stables. We are now in communication with stock men who will be here on the day that the sale is made to assure you or our visitors will be on hand to see that all is done fairly, and to see that the men who hold the woman's estate are not unmercifully treated.

Respectfully, SMITH & FIELD,

Edward R. Weir Dsd.

One of Muhlenberg county's prominent citizens, Edward R. Weir, died at his residence in Greenville last Wednesday.

He was in the prime of life according to his friends, and was taking a quiet rest in his grave.

He was a man of strong personal characteristics. He was appointed post-master by President Harrison, which position he held at the time of his death.

Mr. E. J. Maddox, of Rockport, ill. Dr. Coleman's pulpit Sunday morning and evening. Both discourses were thoughtful, earnest, and well delivered with feeling and interest. This young man is a man of great promise.
